Linda Lee Schroyer-Parsons

December 13, 1949 - December 26, 2018

Wenatchee, WA

Linda Lee Schroyer-Parsons, 69, of Wenatchee, passed away peacefully on December 26, 2018.

She was born in Spokane, WA, on December 13, 1949, to Lawrence "Larry" A. and Margaret "Peggy" (Primmer) Schroyer. She graduated from Rogers High School in 1968 and then attended beauty school. She would have many different professions in her lifetime.

Linda married Richard Whipple in Spokane in 1970. They would spend most of their married life in California. After they divorced, she moved back to Washington. She was living back in Spokane when she met and married Randy Parsons in 1992. They lived most of their married lives in the Snohomish and Granite Falls area. They operated a small farm as well as an herb and garden business. They also eventually divorced, but remained friends until Randy's passing a few years ago. Linda Lee moved to Wenatchee in 2006 to be closer to her mom. She continued her education by taking classes at Wenatchee Valley College. She also enjoyed volunteering her time at the Senior Center.

She is survived by her daughters: Coreena Cay Schroyer, Tamiria Ann Hillman and Brandy Lynn Lee and her husband, Dale; sisters: Karol Sue Foster & husband, Howard, Karen Kay Drummond & husband, Dave, Cheri Bea Offill & husband, Jeff, Sheri Dee Thurston & husband Charlie; brother, Lawrence "Larry" A. Schroyer II; six grandchildren; great niece, Alea Marie Clark, who she was very close to; as well as many more nieces, nephews and cousins. She also has two surviving aunts. She was preceded in death by both of her parents and one granddaughter.

At Linda's request, there will be no service. You are invited to view Linda's online tribute at www.HeritageMemorialChapel.com to leave a condolence or share a memory. Arrangements are in the care of Heritage Memorial Chapel, East Wenatchee.
