Lola Irene Trimble

September 2, 1928 - August 23, 2020

Cashmere, Washington

Lola I. Trimble, born September 2, 1928 in Merrill, Nebraska, passed away peacefully in the comfort of her own home of more than 55 years in Cashmere, Washington on Sunday, August 23, 2020 at 91 years young.

Lola packed fruit locally for more than 50 plus years, retiring in 2003, after her last 18 years working at Bluebird.

She will always be missed, loved, and remembered as a loving wife, mother, grandmother, and friend.

She was a lifelong friend to many people. Lola was hard working, big hearted, sweet natured, and always so resilient in good times and bad. She would always give a smile that would make your day.

Lola had a love for birds, butterflies, and all living creatures. May they bring a smile to your face and a remembrance for a sweet woman, friend, and mother, who will truly be missed.

Commemoration graveside services will be held at 11:00am Saturday, August 29, 2020 at Cashmere City Cemetery. All are welcome with restrictions of only 30 people at the graveside with addition guests at their vehicles. Masks are required.

Floral arrangements are by Love Me Flowers in Cashmere. Arrangements are in the care of Heritage Memorial Chapel, East Wenatchee and Cashmere.
