“ I was a surprise when Mom got pregnant but when I was born I became a daddy's girl right away. I always wanted to do things with you even when you said no it's something hard I would beg and beg and pick until you finally let me do it I wouldn't give up and you would laugh at me about that I wanted to be just like you Dad. My brothers and sisters would ask me to ask Dad for ice cream or treats or to do something cuz they said he wouldn't tell me now. Dad had made a shirt for me that said the boss and I had a ball that said the boss cuz I was the one who would boss everybody around. Dad you are and always will be my hero I love you so much and I miss you everyday I find myself wanting to call you when something good happens or I have a question on how to do something or just to hear your voice and I love you.
