

Marvin D. Lippert

April 11, 1954 - October 14, 2016

Marvin Lippert left our lives on Friday, October 14, 2016 in the loving presence of his family, following an 18 month battle with esophageal cancer.

He arrived into the world on April 11, 1954 along with his twin sister, Mavis. They joined George and Elsie and four siblings. Before the age of one, the family moved from Gackle, ND to Washington State, eventually settling in Cashmere. Marvin graduated from Cashmere High School in 1972, spent a short time in the US Army while attending WSU. In 1974, Marvin went to work for Cascade Helicopter in Cashmere. He continued work in the aviation industry until his ill health progressed.

Trouble shooting was a high trait of Marvin. There wasn't a problem he couldn't fix. He was deeply regarded for this, as well as his organizational practices. Marvin was a friend to everyone, he knew no strangers. Marvin's acquaintances will always remember his jokes and comical one-liners.

Missing him are his wife of 36 years, Cheryl; daughter, Megan (David) Anderson; son, Benjamin (Kelsey) Lippert; brother, Harry (Jan) Lippert; sister, Mavis (Bob) Green, sisters in-law, Janet Lippert and Kathy Lippert; three granddaughters, Marin & Layla Anderson and Alexa Lippert, also survived by his extended family and many, many friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents, George and Elsie Lippert; in-laws, Gordon and Ruth Geyer; sister, Donna Mae Lippert and brothers, Darrel and Larry Lippert.

The family wishes a heartfelt thanks to the caring oncology, radiation, and Hospice team of Confluence Health and Cheryl's Lab Family. Memorials are suggested to the Mission Creek Community Club, Cashmere.

A Celebration of Life will be on Saturday, November 12, 2016 at the Mission Creek Community Club, 4724 Mission Creek Rd, Cashmere, at 1:00pm. You are invited to view his online guestbook at www.HeritageMemorialChapel.com. Arrangements are by Heritage Memorial Chapel, Cashmere.

“ I was very saddened to see that Marvin had passed away. He was a good friend and will be missed by all. No need for you to climb into anymore aircraft and steer by hand Marv-you've earned and have your own wings to fly! Marcy Kirk. Following is a favorite poem of mine that I hope will bring the family comfort.

The Weaving

*My life is but a weaving, between my God and me;
I do not chose the colors, He worketh steadily.
Oft times He weaveth sorrow, and I in foolish pride
Forget He sees the upper, and I the under side.
Not til the loom is silent, and shuttles cease to fly
Will God unroll the canvas and explain the reason why
The dark threads are as needful in the skillful Weaver's hand
As threads of gold and silver in the pattern He has planned.*

“ I have known Marvin since I was 3. He worked for my dad at Cascade Helicopters. I loved his smile! He was always nice to me and my family. He made sure we had an Aviator toast for my dad when he passed away. Marvin was a great man. He will be missed by so many people. I happened to see him shortly before he passed and I was able to give him a hug. So glad I had that opportunity. I feel like I lost another piece of my dad. I am sad but thankful that Marv is no longer suffering. Fly Marvin! You are free!!

“ Growing up with Marvin, when it came to humor, whenever we got together one of us was the match & the other gasoline - we got a lot of laughs & occasionally a little bit of unwanted attention. I'm sad that I didn't get the chance to say goodbye to an old friend. Rest in peace my friend.
