

Melissa Gene Rau Snodgrass Roy

October 28, 1954 - May 4, 2024

Melissa Roy passed away May 4, 2024 at Central Washington Hospital. She was born to Ernest and Anna Rau in Wenatchee, WA and grew up in Quincy. Graduating from Quincy High School in 1973. Melissa went on to graduate from Wenatchee Valley College while beginning her many years in retail at Payless Drug Store. She went on to work for Rite Aid and then Cashmere Valley Bank in March of 2002. Melissa greatly enjoyed all of her coworkers and the many customers that she met over the years. Retiring from CVB in 2018. Melissa could always be found tuning into to every Seahawks and Mariners game. She delighted in spending time with her family during many trips to Lake Chelan and traveling with her sister Cindy to any casino that would have them. Always with stories of their many entertaining adventures. She was preceded in death by her parents, her sister Mindy, and her 1st husband (Larry Snodgrass 1997) and 2nd husband (Jerry Roy 2018). She is survived by her daughter Shari Snodgrass and her sisters; Karen (Steve) Rosario, Cindy (Harry) Holeman, and Laurinda Cuevas, along with many nieces and nephews.

A potluck Celebration of Life will be held on Saturday 6/1 from 1-4pm at the American Legion Hall at 208 N Wenatchee Ave. Please bring a dish and your stories of Melissa to share.

In lieu of flowers, please send donations to the Wenatchee Humane Society
