

Nelma Sandvig

March 26, 1924 - August 29, 2014

Nelma "Jane" Sandvig, 90, a longtime resident of Arlee, Montana, died peacefully on Friday, August 29, 2014 at the Sunnyslope Adult Home in Wenatchee.

She was born on March 26, 1924 to the late Orst and Sadie (Talbot) Walton in Kansas City, MO. She traveled from town to town but her teenage years were spent in New Mexico. She married Andrew Sandvig in New Mexico and they moved to South Dakota in 1944 and lived on the family ranch before selling and moving to Arlee, MT. in July of 1951. Jane was a homemaker and mother to 15 children, which included 2 sets of twins. She loved to crochet.

Jane was a lifelong member of the Seventh-day Adventist church.

She is preceded in death by her parents; husband, Andrew; children, Rose, George, Anna, Jane and three infant sons; daughter in-law, Carol Sandvig and grand daughter, Andrea Pyatte, and several other grandchildren.

Nelma is survived by her children, Daniel Sandvig, Arlee, MT; Andrew (Robin) Sandvig, Missoula, MT, Lori (Ron) Boyce, Polson, MT, Kari McDonald, Missoula, MT, Gloria (Mel) KinCaid Spokane, WA, Emmy (Gale) Wick, Wenatchee, WA, Marvon Sandvig, Florence, MT, Arthur (Cori) Sandvig, Somers, MT; daughter in-law, Vickie Sandvig, Florence, MT and many grand children, and great grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held on Sunday, September 14, 2014 at the Pleasant View Cemetery in Saint Ignatius Montana. There will be a meal following the service at the Indian Senior Center in Saint Ignatius, MT.

Arrangements are in the care of Heritage Memorial Chapel, East Wenatchee, WA.