“ We are so sad to hear about Aunt Nina's passing. She was a wonderful aunt to me, and dear to everyone who knew her. She had a quick wit, a great laugh, and was always welcoming to everyone who crossed her doorway. May she be sitting at Jesus's feet today. God bless you, Caroline, Joseph, and Robert... and all your families. Please let me know if you plan a service for her.

“ Without a doubt, she was the sweetest gentlest mother on Pine Street. I remember her humming while reeling in the clothesline. When Joseph or Robert requested an apple, she peeled it, cored it, and served it on a plate even outside. Accompanied by a napkin, of course.
