Wenatchee, WA

Patricia "Pat" Beth (Adams) Scherting, passed away on November 30, 2018, in the comfort of her home and surrounded by her family. She was born on October 12, 1929, to Zealan and Charles Adams in Froid, MT. She was raised by her mother, Zealan, and a very special aunt, Momma Doll; they referred to mom as "Miss Patricia." During her childhood, she lived in Montana, Wisconsin, and Oklahoma.

Mom graduated at the age of 17, and attended Kinman Business College in Spokane, WA. She fondly says that's where she met the man of her dreams. Mom and Dad were married in Glendive, MT, in 1948. They were lifelong friends and loves. Mom and Dad moved to Moses Lake, WA, in 1955, and they purchased their first home and started their family with Tom, Nancy, Suzanne, and Tony. Mom was fortunate to stay home and raise us children; Dad says her occupation was a "mother with household duties."

In 1966, they bought the house of their dreams - "the blue lakehouse." Oh boy, did we build plenty of memories. Mom and Dad relocated to Wenatchee, in 2002, to be close to their children and grandchildren.

Mom enjoyed their membership at Moses Lake County Club. She loved to entertain and have fancy dinner parties and would always set a beautiful table. She enjoyed her beloved game of bridge, both orthopedic and duplicate, and played up until Thanksgiving.

"Gold Nana" (as she was called by her grandkids) is a vibrant part of our families, leaving her children, grand and greatgrandchildren and their spouses: Tom, Melody, and Justin Scherting, and Megan and Justin Smith; Nancy, Mike, and Natalie Kokenge; Morgan, Sean, Vai, I and Burke Donnelly; Brock Kokenge and Pierre van Breda; Suzanne, Kevin, and Courtney Reister; Jamie, Mike, Ben, and Nate Huber; and Kalie, Josh, and Taylor Fish; Tony, Brenda, Lexus, and TJ Scherting.

The family is so blessed that Mom was so well taken care of by the staff at Avamere, her friend and care-taker, Laurie McGee, Dr. Preissler and her staff, and Barb and the Hospice staff at Confluence.

Services will be held on Friday, March 8, 2019, at 11:00 a.m., at St. Joseph's Catholic Church, 625 S. Elliott Ave., Wenatchee, WA. Arrangements are in the care of Heritage Memorial Chapel, East Wenatchee, WA.
