

Patricia Lee Tower

August 20, 1930 - October 13, 2009

Patricia Lee "Pat" Tower, 79, a longtime Wenatchee resident of two terms, passed away on Tuesday, October 13, 2009 at Central Washington Hospital. She was born on August 20, 1930 in Wenatchee to the late George and Gladys (Buhring) Aurand. She graduated from Wenatchee High School in 1948. She made her home in the Spokane and Cheney areas from the the late 1950's through the mid 1970's. From 1979 through 1984, she made her home in the Olympia and Lacey areas. She moved to Ocean City, Washington in 1984, where she went to work as a Cashier at the Sunrise Market. She later worked at the Beachwood Resort at Ocean City, WA. She became a columnist for the Northcoast News, newspaper of Ocean Shores, WA., and wrote a monthly column for several years. In July of 2000, she returned to make her home in Wenatchee.

She is survived by six children, Daniel Britts, Port Angeles, WA, Jody Britts, Spokane, Cynthia "Cindy" Britts, Spokane, Corinne Cox, Wenatchee, Patrick W. Baker, Olympia, Sheila Cane, Cheney; four grandchildren, Eli and Riley Baker, both of Olympia, Jennifer Bruno and Melisa Craig both of Wenatchee and several great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents, two brothers, Richard & Dan Morris and two sisters, Bonita Gellatly & Christine Hoffman.

At her request no services will be held. Arrangements are in the care of Heritage Memorial Chapel, East Wenatchee.