

Randy Main

September 16, 1955 - April 7, 2024

Randell David Main passed away in the home that he loved on Sunday, April 7th, 2024. Born to Doris Avey Main and Ira Main on September 16, 1954, in Leavenworth, WA, Randy was a treasured person to many. His extensive truck driving career made him many friends. Across the state and into Canada many knew his friendly smile and deep laugh. He retired from the trucking industry after nearly 40 years and tens of thousands of miles.

Randy enjoyed fishing and many of his close relationships involved time in a small boat on a lake. For many years He collected model trains and at one time had train tracks that ran around his entire back yard to the delight of his grandchildren. Randy enjoyed old cowboy movies, old country music, and the blues. Having been raised in a musical family he played the guitar and occasionally a harmonica.

Randy is survived by his mother: Doris Hutson, his wife: TD Main, children: Brandi and Jason Bewick, Carisa and Russell Haven, Wendy and Jarod Swayzee, and Aaron and Jennifer Sloan. Nephews: Beau, Shadd, Tyler Main, and Traynor Parker. Nieces: Lacie Hans and Annisa Parker. He is also survived by 12 grandchildren and 1 great grandchild.

The family intends to gather privately.
