“ To the family of Ray,
I first met Ray in the early 1960's when I played basketball in highschool.He was an excellent,imparcial referee whenever he officiated a game.I'm sure I didn't always appreciate that at the time if he called me for a foul.Ray was very good at being fair to both sides in a game.

I later went to work at Curtis Thriftway in the meat department.My main job was to clean the equipment,floors and counters,but in a short time Ray had shone me how to grind hamburger,make cube steak,make sausage and many other more interesting jobs in the department.He was a great guy to work with and a great teacher.He also told me not to expect any favors on the basketball court.I expected no less.

We are very sorry for your loss.There was only one Ray and he will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

Very sincerely,
Russ and Linda Carveth

“ Ray you will be dearly missed. I have many good memories from when I was a kid and remember how cheerful and nice you always were when I would visit my nana (Mable Knowles) and we'd go visit you. You were a dear friend to Mable and I know she truly valued your friendship. My sincere condolences to Ray's family. - Kacy
