

Richard Daniel Brinkley

September 22, 1965 - January 19, 2021

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

TB

“ The Rich and his brother Joe in our first apartment on 9th street in Bremerton WA 1991

Tammy Brinkley - January 12, 2022 at 02:29 PM

TL

“ Rich and his Boys . He loved watching Josh wrestle for the "Yelm Twisters" He was so proud that his son followed in his footsteps. Making the bodies hit the floor. Rich would get so stoked when Josh would start the "SICK MOOSE" growl to intimidate his opponent.

Rich was amazed with Joe's spunk from the get go, Joe was about 3 when he saw some kids picking on Josh, Joe comes bursting into the house to get his play sword. Rich said "where you going?" Without skipping a beat, Joe stated " I'm going to kick their asses!"

Joe's go getter, never a quitter ability to overcome such huge obstacles, and still somehow manage to smile. He was/is an inspiration to us. We loved watching Joe taking over our neighbor's lawn service and smashed it.

He loved you both so very much. Rich was always proud to be your Dad.

I, too love you both so much. I am very sorry for your loss. I will always be here for all of you. Josh you have to know you were my angel, and still are.

Go forth into this world boys, knowing you were both very loved by your Dad.

Tammy Lane - January 27, 2021 at 11:17 AM

“ Our home in Yelm WA

Tammy Lane - January 25, 2021 at 12:08 PM

“ I will always hold you in my heart forever!

Tammy Lane - January 22, 2021 at 12:26 PM