

Richard Dean Marringer

October 28, 1939 - May 4, 2010

Richard Dean Marringer, 70, a longtime resident of Oroville, passed away on Tuesday, May 4, 2010 on his way to Central Washington Hospital.

He was born on October 28, 1939 at Toutle, Washington to the late Nicholas Eugene and Madeline Virginia (Looman) Marringer.

During the Korean Conflict, Richard served with the U.S. Army in the 3rd Armored Division in Tanks. Upon receiving his honorable discharge, he became a Merchant Seaman. He continued to work as a Merchant Seaman until retiring. He worked most of his years for the Northland and Bricks Shipping Companies.

He is survived by two sons, Richard C. Marringer, Oroville and Louis Dean marringer, Fife, WA; one brother, Charles Maringer, Tacoma; one sister, Joyce Vivian Strange, Boulder, Colorado; one half brother, Marvin Fenn, Fresno, California; three grandchildren, Tegena Marringer, Tachael Marringer and Lindsey Marringer all of Oroville and two great grandchildren, Shawn Marringer and Jayden Marringer both of Oroville. He was preceded in death by his parents, his wife, Juanita (Rane) Marringer on November 14, 2005, five brothers and one sister.

Arrangements are in the care of Heritage Memorial Chapel, East Wenatchee.