Robert Currie "Bob" Eadie

May 10, 1927 - November 7, 2020

Leavenworth, Washington

Robert Currie "Bob" Eadie, 93, of Leavenworth, passed away on November 7, 2020 at his home.

Bob was born on May 10, 1927 in Salamanca, New York to Thomas Currie & Ruth (Shearer) Eadie. He was raised in New York and enlisted in the U.S. Navy in 1945. He earned the rank of Seaman Second Class and received an honorable discharge for his service.

Robert met and was married to Shirley Foos on June 10, 1950 in Rochester, NY. They moved in 1952 to Whittier, California to make their home. Later moving to La Habra, he worked as a heating and air conditioning Technician. Then in the mid 1980's they moved to Washington. They purchased and operated a Bed & Breakfast in Peshastin. In 1999, they sold their Bed & Breakfast. In 2005, Robert and Shirley moved to Leavenworth.

In their retirement, Robert and Shirley like to spend their winters in their RV at Oceanside, California on the beach. On February 14, 2016, Robert was preceded in death by his wife Shirley M. Eadie. Bob loved to can the vegetables from his garden and make jams and jellies from his berry bushes for his friends.

Bob is survived by his four sons: David, Craig (Kim), Michael (Karen), and Kevin (Maria); sisters: Alice Vogel of Fullerton, CA, Ruth Ann Jarvis (Joe) of Rochester, NY; and many nieces and nephews.

Funeral Mass will be Wednesday, October 13, 2021 at 11:00 am at Our Lady of the Assumption Catholic Church in Cashmere.

Bob will be placed to rest next to his wife Shirley at the Tahoma National Cemetery.
