Robert E "Bob" Cline

April 15, 1938 - April 16, 2022

Cashmere, Washington

Robert E "Bob" Cline, 84, a longtime Leavenworth resident, passed away on April 16, 2022, at Central Washington Hospital.

He was born on April 15, 1938, at Azwell Washington to Laurence Ervin and Georgia May (Berry) Cline. He grew up in Azwell and Pateros. He was the youngest of seven siblings. Following school, he went to work in the concrete construction industry. He worked on Rocky Reach and Azwell Dams.

He met and married Maureen M. Bernbeck from Twisp, on September 26, 1958. In 1960, they had their first son, Bob, then Ronnie in 1962, followed by Randy in 1966. They lived in Pateros for a while then briefly to Goldendale before settling in Leavenworth. He continued working in construction as well as part-time work for the US Forest Service. Then in 1966, going to full-time for the US Forest Service and retired in the late '90s. Bob and Maureen later moved to Cashmere in 2010. Bob missed working outdoors, so he started a firewood business, selling to Leavenworth residents and to Cove Resort at Fish Lake. He did this until Maureen's death in 2017. They had been married for 59 years.

Bob enjoyed the outdoors, camping, hiking, hunting, fishing, and horseback riding. He especially looked forward to his deer and antelope hunting trips to Wyoming, with good friends Roger Woolley and Jim McLauchlan. Even in 2021, on his last hunting trip, he successfully got his deer and elk.

He is survived by his son, Bob Cline (Terri) of Wenatchee; three grandchildren, Trevor Cline, Amanda Torrence, and Brynn Torrence, and numerous nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his wife, Maureen, and sons, Ronnie, and Randy, also his parents and siblings.

A graveside service will be held on April 29, 2022, at 1:00 pm located at the Mountain View Cemetery in Leavenworth.
