Roberta Mae Price

June 15, 1925-April 9, 2014

Roberta Price, 88, passed away on April 9, 2014 at Colonial Vista Rehab Center in Wenatchee, WA, she was a resident of Wenatchee for the last 53 years.

She was born in Oshkosh, Nebraska on June 15, 1925, she later moved to Payette Idaho with her family. It is here that she met and later married her husband of 70 years, Robert (Bob) Price. She worked in various jobs from clerk to bookkeeper and in 1978 she along with her husband started Bob's Engine Clinic. They spent some of their retirement traveling around in their motor home with some of their other relatives.

Roberta was the kind of person that once you met her you were instantly attracted to her and were friends, she'll forever be known as kind and caring to everyone.

Roberta is preceded in death by her husband Robert Price, parents, Roy and Mabel Deshazer, three sisters, five brothers along with numerous in-laws and special friends.

She is survived by daughter Barbara (Terry) Edmondson, East Wenatchee; son, Larry Price (Gary Nicholson), Wenatchee; grandchildren, Robin Olson and Derek Edmonson, Wenatchee and three great grandchildren.

To the Colonial Care Rehab Center for showing our mother, compassion, dignity and love, right up to the end and to the nurses and CNA's who took her into their hearts and made her feel like part of your family, a "Very Special Thanks" to all of you .

There will be a private service held for Roberta and Robert Price on a later day. Arrangements are in the care of Heritage Memorial Chapel, East Wenatchee.
