Ron moved to Entiat, Washington, in 1980, where he worked for Naumes Inc. Eventually he moved to Wenatchee, WA, where he mastered his trade of janitorial maintenance, both for his own company of Cameron Commercial Services, and for other various retail and commercial buildings around town.

Ron held the Presidency for this organization four times, was a District Deputy two times, and State Chairman once. Through his charity work with the Eagles, he became associated with the Wellness Place in Wenatchee, which quickly became his favorite charity.

Ron met who he would often say was, "The Love of His Life," Dena, in 1998, and they were married on October 11, 2008.

Together they enjoyed traveling, camping and keeping up with the children and grandchildren. Ron also enjoyed fishing, bowling, shooting pool and cooking. His monthly steak feeds, fish fries, and liver and onions will be missed by many.

He is survived by his wife, Dena Bailey Saylor, and his children: Josh Saylor, Andrea (Hilario) Chavez, Cameron Saylor and Thomas Saylor all of Wenatchee, WA, Brianna Saylor of Hamburg, New York; nine grandchildren and one great-grandchild. He was preceded in death by his mother, Ida Mae Tramell, and step-father, Gene McKern of Indiana.
