

Roy Eddings

March 29, 2023

Roy G. Eddings, age 73, passed away at Wenatchee, Washington on March 29, 2023 due to a sudden illness.

Roy was born on February 27, 1950 in Fort Smith, Arkansas to Bob & Dorothy Eddings. At the age of 4 Roy's parents relocated the family from New Mexico to Quincy, Washington, and then on to East Wenatchee in 1959. Roy graduated from Eastmont High School in 1969.

On April 19, 1977, Roy married lifelong friend and love of his life, Leah Ledbetter, in Reno, Nevada. Roy and Leah made their home on the Tarpiscan where they raised two boys, pigs, cattle, and horses and always had a hankering for chickens. Roy was extremely proud of his two sons, Ryan & Matthew, and never failed to encourage them in whatever they chose to do. He developed a very strong bond with his grandchildren and there was nothing Roy enjoyed more than playing with them or visiting with friends and family. Roy never knew a stranger and his laughter could fill any room. No doubt we will all be recalling "Roy Stories" for many years. Everyone respected and admired Roy and undoubtedly no one had more friends than he did. It was normal on his birthday for him to receive over a thousand birthday wishes on his Facebook page and he could tell you exactly who each of the well-wishers were.

Roy is survived by his wife, Leah, his two sons Ryan and Matthew, and Teresa Eddings. Three grandchildren, Madisen, Macie, and Dallas. Sister Wanda Ashcraft and sister, Linda (Walt) Lindsay. special cousin, Herbert (Mike) Eddings. Best friend and brother-in-law, Keith Lacey Ledbetter, with whom he ventured down to California and rode motorcycles to Alaska...free spirits to the end. Multiple nieces and nephews and great nieces and nephews.

Roy was preceded in death by his parents, Bob & Dorothy Eddings, sister and brother-in-law, Bobbie & Frank Tapscott, brother-in-law Robert Ashcraft, father-in-law Keith Perry Ledbetter, very special cousin, Shawn Martin (Marty) Eddings and infant twin brother and sister, Dallas and Alice Eddings.

A Celebration of Life will be held at a later date.

Tribute Wall

RL

“ RIP Roy will never forget our time together when I was home on leave from the army.
Racing big red ,flipping the guy at the 5th street market double or nothing for beer.
You never lost!
And most of all you introduced me to my wife
of 51 years
You will be missed by many.
No chicken fitting up there
Ron Lytle

Ron Lytle - April 29, 2023 at 09:44 PM

CR

“ Roy boxed my ears when I was six for climbing on his dirt bike. So I chucked a rock at him every chance I got. I named him "Hard Boil" after John Wayne called someone that in a movie and it stuck for me. We picked on each other every chance we got. Well, I know you're in Glory now but I sure hope there's someone there to pester you good. Till I get there.
So no tears, and no wooden nickels.

Cherie Roberts - April 13, 2023 at 10:20 PM

MH

“ I never had a dull moment with Roy. From junior rodeo, shooting groundhogs or just general BS. I met Roy after I got out of the army when I was working at Rex's Cut-rate on Grant road, he always needed beer.

Mark Harle - April 12, 2023 at 10:20 PM