

Sabra Janeen Crafton

April 14, 1985 - June 30, 2014

Sabra Janeen Crafton, 29, a Cashmere resident passed away on June 30, 2014 in Cashmere, in a drowning accident.

She was born on April 14, 1985 in Wenatchee to James Lee Deane and Tina Lynn (Olsen) Crafton. Sabra's young life was spent in the Ponderosa Estates area near Plain until the age of 12 when the family moved to the Kalispell area in Montana. In 2002 she moved to East Wenatchee and to Cashmere in 2006. Sabra enjoyed training animals, especially her dog "Spot" and raising lizards. She was a rock hound and had found a very rare Geo Crystal Pod up #2 Canyon in Wenatchee. Sabra loved the outdoors and even enjoyed sleeping on the ground.

Sabra is preceded in death by her father.

She is survived by her mother Tina (longtime companion, Jeff Jones), half sister, Tara Deane, Wenatchee Valley and maternal grandfather, Harold Olsen, Cashmere.

You are invited to view her online guest book at: www.HeritageMemorialChapel.com . Arrangements are in the care of Heritage Memorial Chapel, Cashmere.

“ Sabra you will be missed by many. Time and distance only means something when we can't change it to make amends. I knew you as the wonderful child you were. Your grandfather loved you without end. All of your relatives are grateful for his contribution in your life.

I am your fathers brother, your uncle.

May our Lord and Creator give you rest and peace.

Love eternally, Uncle Henry

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. I dont know if you remember me. But I am also 29. In 2004-2005 I went over to Sabras apt. in East Wen, that she shared with her mother and grandfather. I think I was pregnant during most of the time that I was hanging out with her. I also had an ear infection one of the times that I was there, and Sabras mom dropped peroxide and water in my ear with a Q-tip. Dont know if that helps any:)

Sabra was a sweet girl. She cracked me up with how much she loved her fat-tailed lizzard that she had at that time. She was always holding it. If I remember right, I think it got away a time or 2 also. But the 1 thing I remember most was Sabra always smiling! She had the biggest and brightest smile. You will be missed Sabra.

I pray God grants you all His peace abundantly!
