“ Losing Sam was like losing one of my own children. She was such a bright spot in our lives and we always enjoyed when she was around. Heaven has certainly gained a bright new angel.

“ Beautiful girl! I hope you can finally rest easy. My sister, my hero and most definitely my partner in crime. We always had some sort of shenanigan going on. Our pointless runs to town for coffee just to be told that was a waste of gas. It was all worth it. The trip to the zoo where you didn't feel good but still put on a smile and went. Thank you for being an amazing auntie to my girls. We will always cherish that.
Love your sister.
