“ Sarah and I go way back. She always shared her whole heart with me. When we would talk, we would really connect, having had shared in similar experiences, we could really help each other and relate. She helped me through a really hard time, making dinner for me and other friends even though she herself probably should have been the one that was being cooked for. Complete selflessness and absolute kindness, are what best describe her. She did not have a bone in her body that could think badly of someone. She was such a character; her humor absolutely was undeniably hilarious. Late into the night we would watch movies, listen to music, and laugh. There was a lot of laughter. That's what was so amazing about Sarah - She could laugh even though inside she was probably not laughing inside. Her decorating and creativity skills blew my mind. Her little apartments always looking super cozy, cute and welcoming. I really wish you were still here so we could talk, catch up, and confide in one another, Sarah. You always called us sisters, and we definitely are in some way. I think of you every day and I miss you so much!! I will keep your memory alive forever and always. No one knows how truly special you are to me and to the universe. Your exuberant energy is felt eternally. I hope you are free of hurt, physically and emotionally and have found peace that you needed.

“ Sarah was so precious! We are going to miss her! She would come to our Church when she was feeling well enough. Please contact us if we can be of assistance in any way.

Sincerely
