“ Scott my cousin, may you be resting in peace. My favorite memories of Scott is being at Grandma and Grandpa King Lake house. Being little kids at my favorite place. That's how I will always remember Scott, as a cute little boy, all of us feeding the ducks with plastic bags on our feet so we didn't track in duck poo. Eating ice cream with Marshmallow topping and a wafer cookie.

“ I will always remember that sweet, happy little boy I used to babysit. May you find peace and happiness in the rainbows now.

“ I got to experience Scott's love for clam digging! He was so excited we limited out within an hour. Scott had such a gentle heart. It showed in how much he loved his dogs and his Tucker cat! We would be relaxing at his house and he would randomly grab his guitar and play! He had dreams of being a rock star or a WWF wrestler! I'm sure those dreams are coming true in Heaven!!
