

Shane Richard Newton

December 30, 1980 - April 5, 2013

Shane Richard Newton, 32, a lifelong resident of Cashmere, passed away on April 5, 2013.

He was born on December 30, 1980 to Ralph and Pam (Salley) Newton in Wenatchee, WA. Raised in Cashmere, he attended school and graduated from Cashmere High School in 1999. His high school years awarded him many sport accolades; State Championship in Track 400 Meter dash, 800 Meter run races and the 1600 Meter Relay. He was named to the 1999 Caribou Trail League All-Conference Football team as a Defensive Back. After graduation he enrolled in Wenatchee Valley College and shortly realized that years of following and helping his father in home construction that his talents were in construction. A natural handy man he found employment in the housing construction market with various builders. He loved to "tinker" with electronics while listening to his music and was a "wiz" on computers.

He is preceded in death by his uncle Bobby Lee Newton.

He is survived by his parents, Ralph & Pam Newton, Cashmere; sister, Amber (Charles) Griffith, Cashmere; grandparents, Wayne & Sharon Salley, Cashmere, Ernie & Edith Fellows, Cashmere, Bob Newton, Malaga; uncle, Tim (MaryKate) Salley, Redmond; aunt, Jennifer Stancil, East Wenatchee, nephews, Dawson Breckenridge and Charlie Griffith, both of Cashmere and cousins, Adrienne & Chad Salley, Redmond, WA, Taylor & Hunter Stancil of East Wenatchee and many friends.

In lieu of other memorials donations may be made to Children's Hospitals in Seattle or the charity of your choice.

Graveside Services are planned for Thursday, April 11, 2013, 11:00 at the Cashmere Cemetery. To view his online guestbook go to; www.HeritageMemorialChapel.com . Arrangements are in the care of Heritage Memorial Chapel, Cashmere

“ Ralph and Pam,
I am so very sorry to hear of your son's passing. From the information I read, your son was a genuine and caring person. I am in shock and wanted you to know that my thoughts and prayers are with you. I know I haven't kept in touch over the years, I just could not confront the way I treated you. My heart goes out to you during this extremely difficult time. If I can do anything for you and your family, please let me know. I am so sorry! Scott

“ I knew Shane for only a short time. My daughter, Leah, and I moved to Leavenworth in July of 2012. Shane became Leah's friend. He was the most devoted and loyal friend to her. As a parent, I can only imagine your loss. As a sister who lost her brother over 17 years ago, I know the pain. As I said, I knew Shane only a short time, but I am devastated by the news of his death because he was a special person. He was always sweet and polite. He will be missed. Leah and I send our condolences to your family. We will miss your son very much.

“ Dear Pam,
I'm so sorry for your loss, can't even imagine losing a child. My heart aches for you and your family. May you find the strength to carry on, God mends our hearts and minds. I will be lifting you and your family up in my prayers in these coming days and weeks!
Many blessings to you and your family!

“ For you Brother, I Promise

You showed me a lot of things; I learned a lot I didn't know. But you forgot to teach me one last thing, how to let you go. I know you didn't mean to leave me, sometimes we have no choice.

I miss being your little sister and hearing the sound of your voice. I wish I got to say "I Love You". If God could grant me one last wish I'd ask to say "Goodbye". You always meant the world to me. I could never love you less. I know it's true when they say "He only takes the best". You're still here in my heart and mind. Still making me laugh cause your stories live on. I hold you in a thought and can feel you and it gives me strength and courage to go on. The tears I have cried for you could flood the earth. And I know you have wiped each one away, for you Brother, I Promise you this.

I promise to carry on your contagious smile the same one that lit up a room the minute you walked in. I promise to laugh and never take myself too seriously. I promise to love harder and forgive faster. I promise to be content, in every sense of the word. To be thankful for the air in my lungs and the thirty years I was blessed to have with you. I promise to try and have as big a heart as you did. To know what I have and what I can give to others. I promise to grieve the absence of your physical being only for a moment. And then I promise to set you free. I promise to never give up on others even when I'm ready to give up on myself. I promise to be a friend and a mentor as you were. To be a helping hand, shoulder to cry on or a set of ears to simply listen. I promise I will always hold you in my heart. I will be missing you every day til the end of time. I promise you will be forever in our lives. You will forever be a brother, a son, an uncle, a grandson and friend. The most important promise I can make, despite all my failures and all my losses, a promise that carries the equivalence of all the rest combined is this:

I promise to make you proud with all that I am I love you Shane.

Love always and forever,

Your Little Sister Amber

“ I am so sorry for our loss. I feel a little dumb for saying this because I know it won't bring him back, and I am truly sorry. I know this pain well and I know it takes your breath away and makes it hard to breath. But I know he will live in our memories and in our happy thoughts of him forever.

“ Shane and Amber, with their grandparents, Wayne and Sharon, would always come camping with our family and friends during our grandparents/grandkids camping week each summer. Not sure how old we were, but we watched Ace Ventura: Pet Detective one year over and over and over again because Shane kept playing it in their grandparents RV. I have that movie memorized to this day because of him. I mostly knew him just as my good friend's older (and yes annoying) brother, but I think he was truly a fun loving person to those he was most close to. May his family and friends find peace with happy memories of him. This is mine :)

“ Shane.....even though it's been a while since I've seen you it's like it was yesterday. We always just picked up where we left off and it felt like no time had passed. We have so many memories together.....dances, our first real kiss, late nights, laughs, innocent fights, long nights on the phone of which our parents just loved ;), my first Seahawks game, many track meets and traveling with your parents to watch your football games....I could go on and on.....most of all I'll never forget how much fun we had and how much I loved you. You were my high school sweetheart and even though we didn't grow up to be together I know we each took a part of eachother's heart with us, me here and you up in heaven. You had so much potential and had so much more life to live and I wish I would have been around to remind you of that. You were so loved and always will be and my heart aches knowing I won't get to see you again for so long.....I pray that your heart is at peace now and that you now that this isn't goodbye but only until next time. We love you Shaney Waney, my Shaner Bug.
