Wenatchee, WA

Shirley Ann Kikuchi, Wenatchee, WA, was born on November 12, 1944, in Wenatchee to John and Elsie Goehner Flagel, earned her angel wings December 15, 2019. She grew up in Cashmere, WA, graduating from Cashmere High School, attending college in Wenatchee and Seattle, WA. Shirley had many jobs, but worked in the medical field most of her career. After friends set them up on a blind date, Shirley married Mike Kikuchi on December 18, 1976, in Wenatchee. In 1981, they welcomed their only child, a daughter, Crysta. Due to health issues, Shirley was forced to retire in 1987. Unfortunately, her health issues continued to get worse over the years, preventing her from travel, driving, visiting friends and family, or even leaving the house. Getting around the house was even becoming more and more challenging. However, God got Shirley through everything. Everyone who knew her, knew that her faith was the most important thing in her life, next to being with Mike and Crysta.

Survivors include her husband, Mike, and daughter, Crysta, both of Wenatchee, WA; brothers: Jim (Janet) Flagel of Cashmere, WA, Jerry (Joanne) Flagel of Renton, WA, Ed (Marlene) Flagel of Sammamish, WA;
