

Stacey A Johnson

October 7, 1963 - September 18, 2025

It is with deep sorrow that we announce the passing of Stacey Ann Johnson, who left us on September 18, 2025, at the age of 61. Stacey was a cherished daughter, granddaughter, sister, aunt, cousin, mother, friend, and caregiver.

A woman of unique resilience, Stacey's early years spent in Washington developed her love of nature and empathy. She loved competitive skating and spending time with friends. As a young adult, she moved to Southern California and completed High School, earning the 'Iron Woman Award'. The 'Iron Woman Award' was presented to individuals who displayed exceptional courage and fortitude, overcoming significant personal challenges while still actively participating in their education. Her partner, Steven, was a significant source of support and encouragement. Together, they had a daughter, Samantha.

Stacey thrived as a cocktail waitress, bartender, and trainer. Often finding a natural leading position everywhere she went. She later became a massage therapist and took great pride in her ability to help people in their healing and health journey.

Known for her fierce independence, free spirit, quick wit, and sharp sense of humor, Stacey approached life with the ability to always be herself (no matter the room or company). Her colorful energy, verbiage, and spirit could always light up a room. She was a good listener, admired by many, and respected by all. Stacey had a natural power to cultivate and nurture community wherever she called home. She may have shown up late, but usually never empty handed. Stacey was known by many as the 'caregiver' and 'second mom'. She always wanted to make sure people were fed ("would you like some tea?") and knew they were loved. Her wisdom, kindness, and compassionate spirit left a lasting impact on those fortunate enough to know her.

A proud daughter of all things magical, Stacey was a source of light and safe space to those around her, imparting strength and insight throughout her life.

Stacey will be dearly missed by her only daughter, Samantha; her only brother, Eric; her only nephew, Saxon; and family. Her legacy of love, compassion, and magic will continue to inspire those who knew her.

A Zoom memorial service will be announced soon. Details will be shared for those who wish to honor Stacey's memory.

“What a beautiful, “spot on” presentation of Stacey. She was my best friend, undeviatingly loyal, unapologetically authentic and honest, with the biggest heart of all I ever knew. She comforted me in life’s darkest times. She always created a magical home that nurtured whoever was fortunate enough to enter. There is nobody near like her. Her humor and laugh were her trademark and were always genuine. She carried wisdom of sages, and a light that this world can never extinguish nor even tarnish. Stacey, you are always with me, I celebrate You in everything beautiful, peaceful, in every cup of tea, in twinkling lights, at Halloween, and in the music that first drew us together at La Vida. My best and ever friend, thank you for blessing my life, and I know we will find each other once again in form. No doubt you’re already putting your new home together and remaining fantastically YOU. I love you.

“Stacey had a “mile smile”, was queen of the kitchen and was never too busy to share a cup of tea, story or life wisdom! She was Stacey inside and out, never judgmental and always ready to enjoy the moment She’ll surely be missed.

Soar as high as you want, Stacey, and fly free!!!!
