“ We never had the blessing of meeting Nell but we are the ones that purchased the "homestead". We have spent the last two years doing a remodel while keeping as much of the original character as possible. We had planned a 100 year birthday for the house this year and had hoped to invite some of you but the virus happened. Nell and Huck for that matter had to have been great people as this home and property have a tranquility that our family enjoys daily. Our grandson 1.5 years old loves to walk the grounds. May God's peace be with you all and I hope that knowing a Wilson Creek boy is on the property.

“ Nell was a very dear friend and neighbor. My daughter and I would visit often and always came away with something good to eat. One time when we visited, she and Huck had just finished butchering chickens. My daughter watched wide-eyed as Nell would take a chicken from the bucket, cut it into pieces, and wrap them for the freezer. My daughter finally asked Nell what she was doing. Nell told her the truth, that she was cutting up the chickens they had just butchered. My daughter, in an innocent voice said, "Nell, it's not nice to kill God's creatures". We had many laughs about that over the years. Although I haven't seen Nell for several years, she will always have a place in my heart. Many condolences to the family.
