

Traci Ann Lhamon

March 8, 1987 - July 29, 2014

Our daughter Traci passed away on July 29th, after a long illness. We loved her and will miss her greatly. She struggles no more, and is finally at peace. Traci was born on March 8, 1987 in Shelton, WA. She spent her early years on Bainbridge Island and moved to Wenatchee in 1998 with her parents Joel and Debbie (Mikkelson) Lhamon. She attended the Wenatchee schools and completed her education at Skagit Valley Community College. Her greatest love was animals and she shined as the front office manager at a veterinary clinic in Oak Harbor. In 2012 she returned to Wenatchee.

She is survived by her parents, four aunts, one uncle, and four cousins.

Memorial contributions are suggested to: The Center For Drug and Alcohol Treatment in Wenatchee in her memory.

A family memorial service will be held later in the month. You are invited to view and leave memories on her online guestbook at: www.HeritageMemorialChapel.com and her Face Book, Traci Lhamon. Honored to serve the family, Heritage Memorial Chapel, East Wenatchee.

Traci, May you rest in peace and dance with the Angels. Wear a crown of heaven's daisies on your head, and never quit smiling because your smile is so contagious.

“ Dearest Debbie,

I am Kelly's Fudge's mother. You used to go to Kelly to get your hair done. Kelly always thought so much of you. When I read about the tragic loss of your sweet daughter, Traci my heart simply broke for you as Kelly has been and still is struggling with the same disease. We understand the struggles and the feelings of helplessness. May it help knowing that others care and are praying for you and your family.

“ Offering sincere condolences to the family. I am so very sorry for your loss. Death was never part of our Heavenly Father's original purpose for mankind. In fact, in His word the Bible He calls it an enemy (1Cor. 15:26) which He promises in the very near future to do away with (Rev. 21:4,5) At that time tragedies and accidents will be a thing of the past, no one will ever get sick (Isaiah 33:24) and there will be a reuniting, a bringing back to life instead of losing (John 5:28,29) Please allow these words to be of comfort to you and give you hope. (2Cor. 1:3,4)

“ Joel and Debbie, there are no words that can express my deep sorrow for you. It has been a long battle and you have been incredibly brave, caring, thoughtful, helpful parents. The suffering is over for Traci and she now can rest. I can't begin to comprehend what you must feel.. I do know that in the weeks and months to come you are not alone. Your support people wrap their arms around you and loved you two. Prayers and hugs to you and your family. May you find peace in the good memories. Andrea Rogers

“ I am so sorry you lost your daughter. She was a beautiful women with a lot of class. When she would come over to our home there was many a time she would share stories of her family. I know from these stories that her family was important to her and she loved you (her family) very much. May you have comfort in those many happy memories you did share. Blessings Sara

“ Joel & Debbie,
We were very sorry to hear about your daughter Traci. We cannot begin to understand how you must be feeling now even though we also lost a daughter when she was just 6 years old. You both have showed us how much you loved her and how devoted you were to her. She will no doubt be missed alot but she is at peace.

“ Joel and Debbie,
I can only imagine what you've been going through. I'm so sorry for your loss.
My stepson suffers from addiction and we know what that's like.
My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ Dear Debbie & Joel,
I so enjoyed meeting you both and although I never met Traci, I feel I know her from all we've shared from our Thursday's. God bless her adorable little heart and may He give you both strength and peace, thinking of you, Barb

“ I don't know you or your Family, but I was moved to tears in the passing of your Traci, as I only have one daughter also and my cousin lost her 32 yr old son to Alcohol Disease one year ago next week. They are gone from our sight, but are always with us in our hearts & souls. God Bless you, and know others are holding you in our prayers.

“ Please know that my heart breaks for you, Debbie and Joel. the two of you have been incredible parents. Traci's passing is so so sad and her last years were a horrific battle against an insidious disease. However, I chose to remember the young, spirited Traci that I first met and instantly fell in love with. The innocent little girl that would run and jump into her daddy's arms. The young girl that enjoyed having good clean fun; going into Dairy Queen and stuttering so badly (on purpose and no offense to stutterers everywhere) that the person taking the order didn't know what to think. I recall the athlete that loved soccer. So many joyful memories that I can hold close and dear to my heart. Please know that she had the perfect parents for her and that I am here if you ever want to talk or if you need a hug. Love Wynne (509)885-4445.
