

Virginia L Paine

February 24, 1925 - November 15, 2017

Virginia Lee Paine was born February, 24, 1925, in Cashmere, WA, to James and Edity Lowery. She spent her entire life in Cashmere, passing away on November 15, 2017.

On November 8, 1944, she married her local sweetheart, Bert Paine, where they continued to make their home. Bert and Virginia raised two sons Robert "Bob" and James "Jim", on the family farm/orchard. Virginia had numerous throughout her life that kept her active, She loved gardening and her dogs and horses. She and Bert spent the summers boating and the winters riding snowmobiles. They spent numerous hours flying in Bert's airplane over the valley. He children and grandchildren were always in sight.

With all of the "things" she did in her life, her greatest accomplishment in life was being a great wife, mother, and grandmother to her family. No matter what the activity was, her home and being with her family was where she was the happiest.

She is survived by her eldest son, Bob of Hansville, WA, and his wife, Lea Anne of Cashmere, WA; daughter, Tawna (Jeff) Groves of Selah, WA, and their son, Jered (Amanda) Paine of Cashmere, WA; great-grandchildren; and many family friends. She was preceded in death by her husband, Bert in 2003; her parents; and one sister, Maxine.

At Virginia's request, no service will be held. Heritage Memorial Chapel, East Wenatchee, WA, is in charge of the arrangements.

“ Virginia's family: I'm so sorry for your loss. I went through a similar situation and I was very helped by the hope that I found in the Bible in John 5:28, which says, "Do not amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". I am sending you a link with more information on this hope.
