“ When you were little Dayle took you boys trick or treating. At one house they gave you an apple. You told the nice people " no want candy ". You knew what you wanted even then . You were such a cute kid . We love and miss you so much

“ I extend my warmest condolences to you and your family. It hurts so much to lose a dear loved one. Please find your comfort through the scriptures and be reminded of God's promise to you to soon remove mourning and death from the earth found at Revelation 21:3,4.
