

William "Bill" McNaught

December 28, 1938 - May 8, 2024

William "Bill" B. McNaught, 85, passed away peacefully on May 8, 2024 in Wenatchee, Washington, following a battle with Alzheimer's.

He is survived by two brothers, 3 sons, and one daughter and their spouses, eleven grandkids, and 2 great-grandkids.

Bill was born and raised in Seattle, Washington. He was the son of Percy and Julia McNaught.

Bill helped raise his kids in Leavenworth, Washington.

Bill owned a heraldry business in Leavenworth for 25-plus years. After that, he traveled all around selling coats-of-arms to military bases until he retired and landed back in Leavenworth for several years. Bill belonged to the Masonic Lodge as a Mason for most of his life.

Bill will be remembered for his love of golf and spending time with friends and family. He would play golf with his sons and friends anywhere he could. He had a great foot wedge for the game.
